About the Place

Lemiling La, often known as Umling La, is one of the highest motorable passes in the world, situated in the eastern Ladakh region of India at an elevation of 19,024 feet (5,798 meters). Connecting the remote villages of Demchok and Umling with the rest of Ladakh, this pass offers breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding rugged terrain and snow-capped peaks. The journey to Umling La is a challenging yet rewarding experience, with its narrow roads and high altitude making it a thrilling adventure for travelers. The pass is a testament to human engineering and resilience, as its construction under extreme weather conditions demonstrates India's commitment to improving connectivity in its remote border regions.
