About the Place

Nepal, nestled in South Asia, is a captivating landlocked country bordered by China to the north and India to the south, east, and west. Its vibrant capital, Kathmandu, pulses with energy amidst a population of around 30 million.

Renowned for its breathtaking natural landscapes, Nepal is dominated by the majestic Himalayan mountain range, home to the world's highest peak, Mount Everest. The country's geography is diverse, boasting lush jungles in the south and fertile plains in the central regions.

With a rich cultural tapestry, Nepal is a melting pot of Hindu and Buddhist traditions. Sacred sites like the UNESCO World Heritage Pashupatinath temple complex dot the landscape, offering glimpses into centuries-old spiritual practices. Nepal's cultural mosaic is further enriched by its myriad ethnic groups, each contributing their unique customs and traditions to the country's vibrant tapestry.
