About the Place

Spiti - The White Wonder - As unique as its name suggests, a journey to Spiti Valley offers an unparalleled experience of stunning, barren beauty. Divided from the lush Lahaul by the towering Kunzum La Pass at 4,551 meters, Spiti is a strikingly remote slice of Tibet within India's borders. On this Winter Edition Spiti Valley Tour 2021, you'll witness the breathtaking snow-covered landscapes of this incredible cold desert.

As you journey through Spiti, you'll encounter isolated villages dotting the jagged terrain like mirages. The sight of whitewashed, mud-brick homes and the stunning Key Monastery perched on the hill, draped in snow, will leave you in awe.

Spiti Valley also invites you to rediscover long-forgotten treasures. Send a postcard from the world's highest post office or embark on a fossil-hunting adventure in Spiti's ancient villages. One such village, Langza, greets visitors with a life-sized golden Buddha statue. The sedimentary rocks here are home to plant and marine fossils, millions of years old - maybe you'll be lucky enough to uncover one!

Breaking the monochrome palette of Spiti is the turquoise ribbon of the Spiti River, flowing alongside you through a vast valley before descending into the deep gorges of the Hangrang Valley. Spiti's otherworldly charm draws many travelers, and this trip will be a journey you'll never forget.
