About the Place

Experience the enchanting holiday spirit this Christmas and New Year in Almaty, Kazakhstan, an emerging gem in Central Asia! This vibrant city offers a unique blend of modern life and rich traditions, making it the perfect holiday getaway. Begin your adventure by exploring Almaty's heart, where you can visit the historic Zenkov Cathedral, one of the tallest wooden Orthodox churches globally, nestled in the picturesque Panfilov Park. Stroll through lively streets adorned with street performers and local artistry, soaking in the festive atmosphere.

Ascend to Kok Tobe, a hilltop retreat offering thrilling rides and stunning views of the city. The cable car ride is a must, especially at sunset when the city lights up against the twilight sky.

For adventure enthusiasts, Shymbulak Ski Resort awaits, where you can glide up the Caucasus mountains and enjoy breathtaking vistas, whether blanketed in snow or lush greenery.

Beyond the urban allure, explore Kazakhstan's natural beauty, including the dramatic landscapes of Charyn Canyon and the serene Kolsai Lakes, ideal for photography and peaceful moments in nature.

Immerse yourself in local traditions as you celebrate Christmas and New Year. Enjoy festive markets brimming with delicious food and a warm atmosphere that welcomes visitors with open arms.

Whether you're traveling solo or with friends, Almaty promises an unforgettable experience filled with joy and adventure. Create cherished memories and return home with incredible stories from your journey through the "Land of Nomads." Don't miss out on the festive magic waiting for you in Almaty
